COMMONWEALTH OF KENTUCKY
BY R. Allen

A CONCURRENT RESOLUTION relating to crimes and punishments.

Be it resolved by the House of Representatives of the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Kentucky, the Senate concurring therein:

1 ➔Section 1. The Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting Group is hereby 2 created.

3 ➔Section 2. The Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting Group shall 4 consist of:

5 (1) The Chair of the Senate Judiciary Committee who shall be a co-chair of the 6 drafting group;

7 (2) The Chair of the House of Representatives Judiciary Committee who shall be 8 a co-chair of the drafting group;

9 (3) The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Kentucky or a person designated
10 by the Chief Justice and approved by the Legislative Research Commission;

11 (4) The Secretary of the Justice and Public Safety Cabinet or a person designated 12 by the Secretary and approved by the Legislative Research Commission;

13 (5) A former Commonwealth's attorney designated by the co-chairs and approved
14 by the Legislative Research Commission;

15 (6) A former Department of Public Advocacy attorney designated by the co-chairs
16 and approved by the Legislative Research Commission; and

17 (7) A member of the public designated by the co-chairs and approved by the 18 Legislative Research Commission.

19 ➔Section 3. In addition to the persons designated above, the co-chairs may 20 request the Legislative Research Commission to approve the appointment of other
21 persons who shall not be members of the Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting 22 Group but who shall be ancillary and supplemental thereto.

23 ➔Section 4. The Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting Group shall 24 meet monthly on the day prior to or the day of, or both, the meeting of the Interim Joint

1 Committee on Judiciary.

2 ➔Section 5. (1) The Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting Group shall,
3 based on prior research and recommendations and its own new research and 4 recommendations, provide to the Interim Joint Committee on Judiciary and Legislative
5 Research Commission draft changes to the Penal Code, the Controlled Substances Act,
6 and other necessary statutes.

7 (2) The draft shall, insofar as possible, be based on the principles of "Justice
8 Reinvestment" and shall provide for alternatives to incarceration, use of community 9 treatment, education, and rehabilitation programs which have been proven to reduce 10 recidivism, to monitor defendants where necessary, and to reduce recidivism while 11 protecting and enhancing public safety.

12 (3) Primary staff for the Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting Group
13 shall be the staff of the Interim Joint Committee on Judiciary.

14 ➔Section 6. The co-chairs of the Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting
15 Group may request that the Director of the Legislative Research Commission contract
16 with one or more outside organizations to provide research, analysis, drafting support,
17 and advice to the Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting Group.

18 ➔Section 7. The co-chairs of the Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting
19 Group may request additional research, drafting, and other assistance from the Court of 20 Justice and its agencies and from the executive branch and its agencies.

21 ➔Section 8. The Penal Code and Controlled Substances Drafting Group shall 22 produce a draft of proposed changes to the Penal Code, the Controlled Substances Act,
23 and other necessary statutes for submission to the Interim Joint Committee on Judiciary
24 and to the Legislative Research Commission no later than November 1, 2010.

25 ➔Section 9. Final membership of the Penal Code and Controlled Substances
26 Drafting Group shall be subject to the consideration and approval of the Legislative 27 Research Commission.

1 ➔Section 10. Provisions of Sections 1 to 9 of this Act to the contrary
2 notwithstanding, the Legislative Research Commission shall have the authority to 3 alternatively assign the issues identified herein to an interim joint committee or 4 subcommittee thereof, and to designate a study completion date.
